

Imagine married 50 years, and still they are in Love
They seem to fit each other like fingers in a glove!
Perhaps the time has come about, when their secret should be and since the floor is mine for now their story ^{is told}.
They have grown together man & wife through the ^{unfolds} pain & joy of everyday life! Together they raised Jerry, their son and together they made their business run!
I am happy to-night to add my cheers and wish you many more happy years!

With Love

Ruth

For Doere and Henry Bernhard of Kansas City by Ruth Stiefel.
The photo is on one side of an index card, the poem on the other.
